Summer Projects Continued

In last week's bulletin I listed all the projects that were done during the summer. Somehow I forgot the following: all of the classrooms in the school were cleaned out and half of them were painted, the fence in the Cemetery has been primed and is in the process of being painted as an Eagle Scout Project. I think that is everything....unless I remember something else! Many thanks.

Parish Picnic Thank You

We enjoyed a wonderful afternoon as a Parish family last Sunday at our picnic. Many thanks to Rita Rotunno and a host of dedicated parishioners who made the day so enjoyable. God Bless you one and all.

CYO Basketball

CYO registration is now open. Please refer to our parish website for details and to obtain a registration form. If you have questions, please contact Kirsten Rappleyea at 845-677-6581 or 845-264-4792.

New Year's Eve Millbrook

Our Parish has been offered the opportunity to be a presence at this celebration sponsored by the Millbrook Rotary. The family-oriented event takes place from 4:00 to 8:00pm at various locations: Lyall Church, Grace Church, Village Hall and Elm Drive Elementary School. St. Joseph-Immaculate Conception would be at Elm Drive where "Arm of the Sea" will be featured.

Needed: a total of 6 volunteers (3 for each shift: 4-6 and 6-8).
Responsibilities: helping maintain order as people enter and exit, providing information (rest rooms, etc.) One person at each session will be asked to be Venue Manager, thanking community and sponsors for support and pointing out emergency exits. Someone from the Rotary will be there at the beginning to explain procedure to volunteers. We can display our banner and have a table where snack food can be sold if we wish.

For more information or to volunteer, call Betty Thurst at 677-8010.
