New Church Steps

Work will begin on Monday, September 18 to remove the present slate steps at the Sacristy door and front doors of our Church. As you know these steps have been badly damaged over time and harsh winters. The new steps will be made of granite and promise to hold up to the most harsh winter conditions. The new front steps will feature a deeper platform for the top, giving us more space as we enter and exit the Church. We are able to make this needed improvement through the generous gift of Skip Ciferri and Mr. & Mrs. Fred Paolucci. We are all very grateful for their generosity.

During the demolition and construction, please enter and exit the Church through the handicapped entrance and the side door by the handicapped ramp. Thank you for your patience during this time.

Uncle Al's

Uncle Al's has been spiffed up thanks to volunteers who cleaned the shop and cleared racks and shelves so that newly donated items can be put out. Due to the kindness and generosity of several parishioners, the very worn carpet in the shop has been replaced with a piece of carpeting (in very good condition) that was removed from the Church during renovations.

Donations of clothing, toys, linens, jewelry and household goods are gratefully accepted during shop hours: Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays 10:00am—4:00pm and Saturdays 10:00am-1:00pm.
All proceeds benefit St. Joseph's Church.
